NARRATIVE:

Choi has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 22. His convictions include stalking, brandishing an imitation firearm, inflicting corporal injury on spouse or cohabitant, numerous drug charges, burglary, contempt of court, violation of parole, petty theft, resisting arrest, violating court order, DUI, failure to appear, theft, and driving without a license. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 16 month term for stalking. Choi was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 02, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Choi qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for the charge of stalking is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
